

Invitation to Present

GIS Professionals

TxGIS Day 2021 is November 15th - 17th

Free Virtual Conference for GIS Professionals,
Universities, and High School Students & Teachers

Are you passionate about GIS?
Are you eager to share your geospatial knowledge and experience?

The TxGIS Day Committee invites you to present at this year's event! Beginning Monday, November 15th there will be three days of interactive workshops, demonstrations, and programs celebrating the advancement of geospatial technology. Bring your knowledge of geospatial technologies to the forefront and share your experiences. Help us make this event a success and sign up today!

Step 1: Submit Your Abstract (Click Here)

Step 2: Choose a presentation option.

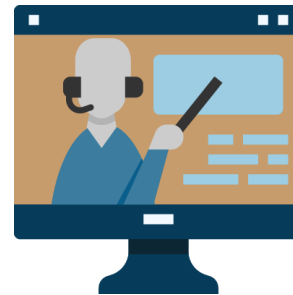

Option 1

Submit a recorded presentation, followed by a live virtual Q&A.

Option 2

Schedule a live presentation, followed by a live virtual Q&A.

Step 3: Wait and one of our committee members will contact you for scheduling.

Step 4: Visit the TxGIS Day website (Click Here) and sign-up for the event.

If you have any questions ahead of time, feel free to contact us at txgisday@gmail.com.

Sincerely,

TxGIS Day Planning Committee

